Don't Forget—

That the opening meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held on Monday, September 19th, at 3:30 p. m., in the school auditorium. There will be an interesting program and a social time at the close of the meeting.

The president of the P.-T. A. urges everyone who is interested in the organization to come to this meeting. She also asks that all of last year's members and those who are interested to join this year, will please bring their $1 for dues. This will greatly facilitate the work of the Membership committee.

Hinton Thompson Buys Farm

H. H. Thompson, Tryon barber, farmer, fisherman - hunter and humorist, has sold his home on Grady avenue to Senator F. P. Bacon and has purchased the farm formerly owned by H. L. Shelnett on Landrum Route 1 in Polk county. The sale was made through G. Harrison Bridgeman.

European Crisis At Kiwanis Club

Our London Letter

Cockermouth Castle,
Cumberland.
Sept. 2nd

Dear Mr. Vining,

This glorious autumn weather, when we should be watching the turn of the leaf and the turn of the tide, we are watching with apprehension the turn of affairs in Central Europe. After endless speculation as to the ins and outs of the situation, one realizes that ordinary arguments are of no avail, for the future of Europe rests, it would appear, with one man, Hitler. Nobody has the faintest idea what he will do, but whatever it is, we wish however he would do it quickly. What worries us is the fact that he does not seem to wish for a peaceful settlement of the Sudeten question. His anti-Czech campaign is terrific, every drunken brawl is turned into an "incident", his million strong army thunders up and down the frontiers. He makes us tired!

To turn to more pleasant subjects, it was a pleasure to meet the Sam Bingham in London and to meet Genevieve Washburn and her two charges down at Mrs. Grenfell's. I expect they are back with you now, full of tales of the rigours of the English climate and the poverty of the English coffee. It was nice to hear about you all. Mrs. Grenfell and I find that we resent all newcomers! We'd like Tryon to remain exactly as it was when we left it.

Since I have been up here in the North, I have attended hound trailing, which is a new sport to
