

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C., UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c Per Copy (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) Per Copy 1c

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., SEPTEMBER 14, 1938

TRYON YOUNG PEOPLE IN SCHOOL, COLLEGE

50 Students In Over 30 Different
Schools.

Tryon will be represented in many colleges this fall and winter from Florida to Canada. Some students have already resumed their studies and others will follow in a few days. The University of North Carolina gets the largest number as follows: Alan Calhoun, James Little, Alfred Huger, Anson Merrick, George Aid, Eugene and Frank Turner; other students attending various colleges and schools are: Faye Sprague, Arlington Hall, Washington, D. C.; Ann and Frances Mason have also gone to Washington to attend school; Betty Conrad, Duke University; Rachel Jackson and Hope Rogers, Converse college; Alene Ward and Ruth McFarland, Queens-Chicora; Carol Erskine, Art Students League, New York; Bill Ward, Georgia Tech in Atlanta; Theo Perhulas, Nelson Jackson, III, and Edward Manville at Clemson college; Ruby Williams and Louise Camp, Asheville Teachers college; David Zogbaum, St. Paul's; Rufus Zogbaum, Yale; John David McGeachy, Davidson; Dorothy Smith, Child Education Foundation, New York; Margaret Huger, Johns Hopkins; Edward Sayre, and Vernon Fowles, N. C. State; Cole Brundage and David Howell, Asheville School; John Lewis Thompson, Asheville Farm School at Swannanoa; Bill Dobbyn, Episcopal school, Alexandria, Va.; Ruth Lincoln, Randolph - Macon; Lois Avant, Meredith college; Virginia Kelly, Ashley Hall, Charleston;

— Continued on back page —

“CURB” REPORTER

The Rutherfordton County Fair will be held next week at Rutherfordton. Horse races on Tuesday and Wednesday according to an advertisement in this week's issue of The Polk County News. Cyclone Pete and horses from the Reynolds Stables of Winston-Salem have entered . . . Storm over the North Atlantic Ocean Tuesday night prevent clear radio reception from European capitals, but it was interesting to listen within a few minutes immediate reports on what was taking place in all parts of the world . . . Emerson said: “Any extraordinary degree of beauty in man or woman involves a moral charm.” . . . Radio broadcast at noon stated that riots and street fighting were breaking out in Czechoslovakia and that the government had increased its military forces . . . Word has been received in Tryon that W. B. Weigel, who has been in Africa, has joined J. Foster Searles at Mahe, Seychelles, an island on the east coast of Africa north of Madagascar. Mr. Searles has been there for several years. Bill plans to stay there this fall and early winter. It is interesting to note how many Tryonites meet in so many far away places. Just the other day Virginia Graham in her London Letter reported meeting the Bingham and Washburns there . . . Thousand Pines Inn. — Continued on Back Page —