John Fuldner Director Of Little Theatre

John Fuldner who left Tryon last week in answer to a telegram to take a part in the federal theatre project at Raleigh was surprised when he landed in Raleigh to see his picture on the front page of the Raleigh Times with the announcement of his appointment as the director of the $98,000 Raleigh Little Theatre which had just been approved by the WPA. Mr. Fuldner succeeds Wilbur Dorsett who goes to the Greensboro Little Theatre. The new director got his start in theatre work under his mother, Mrs. Louis Fuldner, prominent on the stage in Europe and America. John has taken the lead in many dramatic performances in Tryon and was a director of a number of productions of the Drama Fortnightly for several seasons here.

Landrum Given $66,000.00 Street Project By WPA

A $66,372 WPA project for improving streets in Landrum has been approved by Washington officials, according to information received yesterday at the office of Senator James F. Byrnes in Spartanburg.

Landrum town officials stated that the money is to be used to hard surface four streets in the town and to do general improvement work on other streets.

Sidewalks will be repaired, gutters cleaned and several streets worked over, in addition to the hard surfacing of the four streets, according to the officials.—Spartanburg Herald.

Columbus Waterworks Put In Receivership

A federal court order filed here has placed the waterworks of the town of Columbus, in Polk county, in receivership. Judge E. Yates Webb, of United States federal district court, signed the order and appointed William Pebodie as receiver with the power to collect all water rents. The order cited that the town had not made payment on a judgment awarded in court to J. L. Barringer.—Asheville Citizen.

Golf Results

The results of the Blind Bogey handicap tournament at the Tryon Country club during the weekend were as follows: First place, a tie between B. B. Bishop, Jr., and Amos Foster, with a net score of 73; second place, B. B. Bishop, Sr., with a net score of 82; third place, a tie between Bert Arledge and Marshall Ballew with a net score of 77. The low gross score for the weekend was made by Earl Rion who shot a 77 as usual.

Garden Club Meets At Pearson's Falls

The Tryon Garden club will hold its first meeting of the fall season on Wednesday, September 21st, at 3:30 p. m., at Pearson's Falls shelter. Miss Pauline Witherspoon will be the hostess. The program is a surprise competition. Members are requested to bring a camp chair.
