

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c Per Copy (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) Per Copy 1c

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, SEPT. 20, 1938

William Feather says: "The trouble with swell resorts is that they're jammed with plain people like yourself who came to see the swells" . . . . John P. Lockhart has some sand, rocks and lumber piled on his vacant lot next of Tucker Shoe Shop. Rector's has mover out to his new dry cleaning plant. Senator Bacon is fixing up the former Betsy Bird place for the Mountain Industries. Don't know who is going into the place vacated by Rector's; look for announcement soon . . . Tryon high school football team will give a welcome to Welcome of Greenville on Friday in the season's first clash. They'll miss Charles Sewall, Charles Conrad and a number of other boosters who haven't arrived in Tryon yet, but Edgar Rowe, Lefty Flynn, Nelson Jackson, Curt Eargle, Von Kahlden, John Washburn, George Holmes, and a number of other college boys will be on hand to put the pep in things . . . . Jim Perkins expected at his Tryon home next week.

. . . Rutherford County Fair is underway in our neighboring town of Rutherfordton . . . Plans are still in the making to bring the Peterborough Players and a Little Theatre to Tryon . . . .

Refugees warn Czechs of plans to fight. 5,000 at rally shout intention to take up arms. Prague government delays acceptance of proposal to give up territory.

Explosion Rocks "Wagon Wheel"

Tryon Fire Department was called out this morning about 4:30 o'clock to the "Wagon Wheel" sandwich shop in the Valley Somebody had put a stick of dynamite in or under manager Hopkins' car near the "Wagon Wheel". The car was completely demolished and a small fire developed but was soon extinguished. No reason for causing the explosion is known. Officers are working on the case. Mr. Hopkins, the owner of the car and manager of the "Wagon Wheel" came from Spartanburg several months ago.

TRYON P.-T. A. HELD SEPTEMBER MEET MONDAY

The Tryon Parent-Teacher Association held its September meeting on Monday afternoon at the school auditorium with the president, Mrs. E. E. Missildine, presiding.

Miss Irene Clark, the County Nurse, gave a very interesting talk on "Keeping the Well Child Well." Mr. B. A. Buff, County Sanitarian, told briefly the sanitary conditions in the county and said Tryon school was the cleanest and most sanitary he had visited.

The president announced that an informal reception for the Tryon teachers would be given at Sunnydale on this coming Thursday from 4:30 to 6:00 o'clock. All the people in Tryon are invited to come.

Forty-two members joined the P.-T. A. and paid their $1 dues at the meeting.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. W. A. Schilleter, Mrs. J. E. Derby, Mrs. C. H. Helms and Mrs. Morgan Morris.