

GÖTTFRIED—SHUFORD

A marriage of interest to many friends in the Carolinas was performed today noon at the bride's home, "Weaverbarton", when Miss Helen Gottfried of Tryon was wed to Mr. Robert Lee Shuford, Jr., of Newton, N. C. The ceremony was performed by Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, pastor of the Erskine Memorial Congregational church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. C. M. Gottfried and of the late Mr. Gottfried. She was educated at Vassar college and Massachusetts State college. Upon graduation she entered the dairy business in Tryon and received state-wide recognition for her achievement in this work. Mr. Shuford is associated in business with his father, prominent Catawba dairyman, and stockman, who was a pioneer in the dairy industry of North Carolina.

Weaverbarton was attractively decorated for the event. The ceremony was performed on the lawn. A wedding breakfast was served in the home following the ceremony which took place at 11:30.

Among the guests present were the bride's brothers, Manfred Gottfried, managing editor of Time, and Rudolph Gottfried of the English department of the University of Cincinnati; also Mrs. M. O. Kelly, Mrs. Rudolph Gottfried, Mrs. M. G. Brand and Mr. Alfred Brand.

County Agent J. A. Wilson and Home Demonstration Agent Miss Agnes McLeod left today for Greensboro where they will attend the State Planning Conference on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, meeting with state specialists to plan their work for next year in Polk county.

The Saluda Apple Show will be in full swing on Thursday thru Saturday. Free admission. Large display of beautiful apples.

You can send the Bulletin to any friend for six months anywhere in the United States for only $1.00.

Amazing! Amazing!

We know of no other word that we can use to describe the NEW 1939 Philco Radio with Mystery Control

Tune the station you want from any room in the house with the radio in any other room. This is accomplished by the Philco Mystery Control Box.

All we can say further is—

Come In And See It Yourself

Otherwise you won't believe it.

Avant Electric Co.

Phone 51

Tryon, N. C.