

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c Per Copy (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) Per Copy 1c

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPT. 22, 1938

"CURP" REPORTER

T G. Miller reports that nature's rock garden is beautiful now in full bloom on the ledges of Calf Rock between the two bridges this side of Saluda on the State Highway. Nature lovers can verify this by driving up and seeing for themselves. Please report to the Bulletin the variety of flowers in bloom . . . Card from Gautemala, Central America, from Scout Executive and Mrs. R. M. Schiele. They report a glorious trip thru great jungles to high mountain country most colorful with native Indian life. They hope to bring back motion pictures to show in Tryon . . . Fall is here with the days and nights of even length . . . Rev. Rolla Dyer, retired clergyman and talented violin and cabinet maker, was 87 year old on Wednesday the 21st . . . Ellis Mills, colored of Lyvn stuck a needle through his finger the other day while washing some clothes on a scrubbing board . . . I. H. Evans said, "Faith is taking God at His word." . . . Vice-president Hoyt O. Prince of the Tryon Kiwanis club is making up his attendance at the Hendersonville club today.

James H. Fay, Roosevelt supported candidate for congress in New York won the Democratic nomination over Congressman John O'Connor who was also running on the Republican ticket. He was nominated on that ticket.

Tryon Girl Scouts Organize for the Year

The Tryon Girl Scouts met on Wednesday, September 21st, and elected officers for the year. Hope Schilleter was elected treasurer and Anne Clark scribe. The patrol leaders are Evelyn Cromer, for the Stars of Tryon patrol; Dorothy Millikin for the Tiger patrol; and Doris McClure for the Mountain Laurel patrol. Evelyn Cromer will be assisted by Gelolo Iris Kell, Dorothy Millikin by Margaret Sprague and Doris McClure by Kathleen Andrews.

Members of the Tiger patrol are Dorothy Millikin, Hope Schilleter, Elizabeth Anne Vining, Frances Helms, Marion Bridgeman and Margaret Sprague.

Members of the Mountain Laurel are Doris McClure, Anne Clark, Evelyn Taylor-Tanner, Nancy Morton, Jean Derby and Kathleen Andrews.

Members of the Stars of Tryon patrol are Evelyn Cromer, Jane Brand, Katherine Edwards, Caroline Speigle, Anne Brundage and Gelolo Iris Kell.

After the election of officers and organization of patrols the following Girl Scouts volunteered to conduct the formal opening at each meeting for a month at a time:

September, Anne Clark; October, Jane Brand; November, Margaret Sprague; December, Hope Schillette; January, Kathleen Andrews; February, Dorothy Millikin; March, Anne Clark; April, Hope Schilleter; May, Margaret Sprague.

Miss Betty Doubleday, who has been a lieutenant for the past three

—Continued on Back Page—