Saluda Crowns Queen Of Apple Show

Saluda, Sept. 23. — This little mountain town, proud of both its apples and its beautiful girls, acclaimed a new queen on Friday night.

Miss Doris Cary-Elwes, with appropriate ceremonies, was crowned queen of the second annual Saluda Apple Festival. The coronation ball was in the high school gymnasium.

"Her Majesty" is the daughter of the Rev. H. Cary-Elwes rector of the Episcopal Church of Transfiguration, and Mrs. Cary-Elwes. She succeeds Miss Frances Pace as the festival ruler. Selection was by popular vote.

The green hills hereabouts, soon to be tinted with autumn colors, resounded with the old dance tunes of the mountaineer during the ball, for square dancing had its rightful place on the evening's program. Music was by Brookshire's string band, from Henderson county. The event was the highlight of the festival program.

The festival closed with a community sing at 8 o'clock on Saturday night, probably in the Community Hall, near the steep tracks of the Southern Railway. Visiting groups will enliven the occasion.

"I never had so much fun in my life as I have experienced in Saluda this summer," said a young man who came here in the spring. Everybody has made him feel at home.

The apple show, being held in the Community Hall, is equally as good as that of last year. This is

Election Board To Purge Books Of Illegal Voters

Registration Called Off

A meeting of the Polk County Board of Elections was held at the home of N. G. Walker, member, at Mill Spring, N. C., September 22, 1938, to read a number of letters asking for a purge, among them letters from the chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Polk County and from Mrs. George Cathey, member of the State Executive Committee in regard to changing the new registration to purging the registration books in the county.

The letters state that the time is too short for a new registration and that the majority of people who asked for the new registration now ask that the books be purged so as to strike off the absentees who have been voting in the county illegally. Mrs. Cathey stated that the Governor has said that he will call for a state-wide re-registration in 1939.

The Board after discussing the matter has decided to call off the new registration in as much as the Governor will call one in 1939 and purge the registration books in each township in the county.

The County Board of Elections will sit with the registrar and judges in each precinct and supervise the purging of the illegal voters.

The purge will begin as soon as possible so as to have the names of the illegal voters stricken off
