

Mountain Industries Opens New Store

The Mountain Industries have opened their new sales room on Trade street next to the Post Office and Senator F. P. Bacon has also moved his office to the new location. The weaving department including the Appalachian Homespunns will remain in the old quarters and sales rooms will be operated at both places.

Egerton at Kiwanis

County Accountant William Egerton will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. Accountant Pat McCoy of Charlotte was high in his praise of Mr. Egerton's work at Columbus and stated that the County Officials were making great progress in administering the affairs of the county.

McCLURE—YOUNG

A marriage of interest to friends in the two Carolinas was that of Miss Katherine Eula McClure of Tryon to Mr. James Ennis de Young of Greer, S. C., which took place on Sunday afternoon in Hendersonville.

Mrs. George A. Cathey has received a letter from her brother, Marshall Streadwick, stating that he saw Postmaster W. H. Stearns at the National Postmaster's convention in St. Paul, Minn. Uncle Bill is expected in Tryon today. Mr. and Mrs. Streadwick live at Minneapolis just across the river from St. Paul. When they read in the Bulletin that Uncle Bill was attending the convention they looked him up.

Albert C. Mandeville, of Coconut Grove, Florida, is a guest at Oak Hall.
