ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE AT TRYON, N. C., UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c Per Copy (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) Per Copy 1c Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, OCT. 17, 1938

Car Wrecked; Two Injured Near Vaughn's Creek

A Ford coupe, reportedly the  $propert_V$  of a Mr. MacMichael, of the State Highway Department's engineers in charge of the new Pacolet River bridge construction in the Valley, and driven by Wes Gosnell of Tryon, left the highway on the sharp curve just outside the city limits of Tryon, crashed against the guard fence, somer-saulted over the fill and landed bottom up on the bank of the creek. The impact of the car was so great that a poplar tree at least six inches in diameter, was snapped off approximately 16 feet from the ground when the car smashed into it. Gosnell, and one of the two girls with him at the time of the wreck, received minor cuts and bruises. The car was demolishbruises. ed.

Hendersonville Kiwanis Here On Tuesday

The Hendersonville Kiwanis club will come to Tryon on Tuesday to put on the program at a ioint meeting of the Tryon and Hendersonville clubs at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. Carroll P. Rogers, chairman of the Inter-club committee will be in charge.

News Headlines

Japanese moving closer to Canton, China.

Winston Churchill of England, urges U. S. to join in fight on dictators.

King George of England to visit America in spring.

CURB REPORTER

The Post Office Department in New York informs us that one of our subscribers, J. S. Dudley, has removed from Gramercy Park hotel and left no address . . . . . A newspaper syndicate has bought a two-line filler. "The world's smallest dail<sub>v</sub> newspaper is published at Tryon, N. C." Mrs. W. C. Thayer sends a copy of it from the Alston, (Ill.) Evening Tele-graph and requests are coming in for sample copies—one from Stan-ley A. Jendra of Chicago, John Albanese of Wellsville, Ohio, and one through Postmaster W. H. Stearns from R. E. Phelps of Pen Argyle, Pa. . . . . . When Johnny Van Der Meer visited the Farm School of Asheville several weeks ago and gave some baseball demonstrations, John Lewis Thompson, Tryon student, stepped into the picture, too, when the photographer came around .... Mrs. Fred Gignoux arrived Saturday and is one of the first to occupy the new Crandall apartments. She is busy working on designs for her Christmas card block printing which was so popular last season . . . Thomas L. Elder, the New York rare coin collector, who spends many of his winters in Tryon wrote the Rev. Rolla Dver that he had just bought seven ancient Sumerian tablets, over 4.000 years old. They came from Ur of Chaldees, the home country of Abraham . . . . . Had _Continued on Back Page___