

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c Per Copy (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) Per Copy 1c

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCT. 18, 1938

CURB REPORTER

"To the Editor of the Bulletin:
Sir: From the first item of Curb Reporter of this date it might be inferred that J. S. Dudley is a fugitive from justice or his creditors. A breathless client once rushed into his lawyer exclaiming: 'You must save me. The police are at my heels!' Said the lawyer: 'Quick, into our filing system. No one has ever found anything there.' Both you and the postoffice department may be interested in knowing that I am not hiding in the filing system of the Gramercy Park Hotel, but am living openly and with great pleasure in Tryon. Respectfully, J. S. Dudley."

The Phi Mu news of Queens-Chicora college reports the splendid leadership of its president, Alene Ward, of Tryon, and praised her work in putting forward the work of the Gamma Gamma chapter at the National convention last year which she attended and sang two solos at the closing banquet. Among the new girls pledged to Gamma Gamma are Ruth McFarland of Tryon Converse college glee club is preparing for many programs under the direction of Glenn C. Stables. Rachel Jackson of Tryon is a member of the glee club which will render a program at the college auditorium on Sunday evening as part of the Kiwanis district convention

Correction !

R. L. Riddle, engineer in charge of the new Pacolet bridge, corrects yesterday's story in the Bulletin concerning the auto wreck near Vaughn's Creek bridge. Mr. Riddle states that the owner of the wrecked car is not in any way connected with the State Highway's bridge crew now completing this project. The Bulletin is sorry for the mistake and is glad to make correction.

Hendersonville Kiwanians Put On Good Program

The Hendersonville Kiwanis club came to Tryon today noon and held a joint meeting with the local club. Secretary F. A. Barber of the Hendersonville club made the principal address and told of the value and service of Kiwanis to the individual and to the community. The musical part of the program was rendered by Miss Marion Maxwell, Fassifern student, at the piano, whistling solo by Mrs. Fred Sudeath, and vocal solos by Mrs. Chas. Morrow and Miss Mary Brooks. The program was in charge of Fred Waters of Hendersonville and Carroll Rogers of Tryon. The Tryon club voted to go to Spartanburg next Tuesday and meet with the district convention delegates and hear International Secretary Fred C. W. Parker.

HEADLINES

Combination dance at Sunnydale, Wednesday night.

Benes, former Czechoslovakia president, to lecture in Chicago.

1,000 volunteers fighting forest fires in Vermont.