

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c Per Copy (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) Per Copy 1c

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, OCT. 31, 1928

Public Is Invited to the Auberge Apartments On Wednesday

Tryon's newest and most modern apartment building, The Auberge, will be open to inspection of the public on Wednesday afternoon from four to six o'clock. A general invitation is published elsewhere in this issue of the Bulletin. The attractive two-story building containing nine apartment units, was designed for comfort and convenience. It is air conditioned throughout, has a general restaurant, assembly room and a large terrace allowing plenty of sun light. The Auberge is located on Melrose Avenue opposite the Episcopal church and is in walking distance to all business and civic points of interest.

The restaurant of The Auberge, opened Saturday evening with a dinner which was patronized to the entire capacity of both the restaurant proper and the private dining room.

Mrs. Helen Harwood entertained a party of ten. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Erskine, Dr. and Mrs. John Prestor, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn, Mrs. Homer Ellertson and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Shaffer. The Misses Fasset had as their guests Mr. and S. A. Bingham Sr. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crandall entertained for Mrs. Crandall's daughter, Mrs. Fred O. Ebeling and her granddaughter, Miss Margaret Ebeling who are visiting at The Auberge. Their guests also included Mrs. T. L. Macdonald, Miss Alice Ball, Miss Helen Stearns and her guest,

—Continued on Back Page—

Robert F. McFarland

Columbus, Oct. 30.—Robert F. McFarland, 54, former sheriff of Polk county, died in St. Luke's hospital at Tryon, at 7 o'clock Sunday morning from injuries he suffered several days ago when he was thrown from a truck near here.

Mr. McFarland was riding with several persons in the truck when the bed of the vehicle struck a rock ledge and threw him to the ground.

He was a member of a prominent Polk county family and was born at Columbus. He served as sheriff of Polk county from 1925 to 1928 and prior to that time was a deputy sheriff and a prohibition law enforcement officer.

Ed. Clontz, 25, resident of Mill Spring, and driver of the truck, from which McFarland was thrown was lodged in the county jail last night by the sheriff, on a technical charge of murder. Sheriff Hines acted on instructions from Solicitor Ridings, who placed bond at $1,000, pending further investigation of the case.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon (today) at the Baptist church here. The Rev. D. M. McGeachy will officiate. Burial will be in the Presbyterian church cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be: Lloyd Panther, Sam Lankford, Luther Phillips, Charley Ashley, Marion Smith, and Claude Scoggins.

Honorary pallbearers: E. B. Cloud, J. A. Feagan, A. L. McMurray, J. G. Monroe, Charlie Foster, Jesse Rhodes, John W. Fisher, R. S. Ramsey, Lindsey Smith, F. M. Burgess, Jno. A. Arledge, Sam

—Continued on Back Page—