The Bulletin Invites Local Women to See "Star In My Kitchen," Nov. 16-18

*Cooking School In Motion Picture
Form Will Provide Instruction
And Entertainment.*

This newspaper through courtesy of Manager C. W. Nessmith of Tryon's Theatre has just been successful in securing the new Motion Picture Cooking School, "Star In My Kitchen," which will be presented at the Tryon theatre on November 16, 17, 18.

Mark the days on your calendar because every woman—and man—in the community is hereby extended a cordial invitation to see, absolutely free, this fascinating picture which weaves helpful, intelligent lessons on cooking and home-making into a humorous and romantic plot.

The Motion Picture Cooking School is a brand new idea. First conceived last year, it has met with acclaim from women throughout the country, who like the happy combination of sparkling entertainment and close-up cooking instruction. Seats in the back row are as good as those in the front row—the motion picture permits everyone to hear and see every trick in frosting a cake, making a pie, or cooking bananas.

"Star In My Kitchen" was produced in Hollywood, and the audience will recognize many of the rising young actors and actresses who take part in it. Women young and old will appreciate the humaneness of the romantic story, in which home problems are approach-
