

CURB REPORTER

—Continued from Page One—

this free moving picture, to be given on three mornings from 10 to 11:30 enabling all ladies to leave in time to prepare noon day lunches Jeremy Collier said, "We must not let go manifest truths because we cannot answer all questions about them." Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Ferree, who moved here recently from High Point, have bought a lot in Pickens Park and expect to build soon. Mrs. Ferree is teaching a special class in the Tryon school. Mr. Ferree is an official of the Adams-Millis Corp. WAR NEWS: Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles notified the world last night that U. S. was rearming for defense against any foreign aggression. Hitler and Japan say "pooney". Russia expecting German attack in 1941. Hungary takes over some Czech land. Madrid facing its third winter of war Hubert Foster says that Richard Jones, 124-year-old former Negro slave, has been sick in bed for three weeks and needs help. Jones may need help but there will be a lot of doubt about his age

Misses Mary and Lucy Torr of Detroit are guests at Melrose Lodge.

Postmaster W. H. Stearns states that the Tryon Route One Mail Carrier, R. L. Wilson, will leave the Tryon office at 9 o'clock in the mornings instead of 10 o'clock beginning on November 15th.

Mrs. O. W. Beach of Montclair, N. J., and Miss Helen Kenyon of Poughkeepsie, are guests at Cherokee Lodge. Miss Kenyon is chairman of the board of trustees of Vassar college.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dedmond are occupying an apartment at Mrs. Lydia Strong's on Melrose Circle.

George Webster and the Ernst Mahler horses have arrived from Neenah, Wis., and are at Chinquapin farm in the Hunting Country.

L. F. Buchanan, Miss Frances Buchanan and Miss Lavinia Taylor are in Atlanta visiting the wholesale houses for Santa Claus.

GIFTS of all kinds at the Mountain Industries.—Adv.

Better Light for Better Sight !

Children's eyes are easily strained and should be protected. That is one reason why your home should be LIGHT CONDITIONED. Another reason—you, and your family, will also enjoy the new eye-comfort and beauty that abundant, soft lighting brings into our home. Begin to Light Condition today! It is simple and inexpensive, for electric rates and bulb prices are now lower than ever. See that you have the modern I. E. S. lamps in every room. Start enjoying Better Light for Better Sight!

DUKE POWER COMPANY