

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c Per Copy (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) Per Copy 1c

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOV. 11th, 1938

"Star In My Kitchen" Will Glorify Art of Home-Making

Going to school in a theatre!
It sounds a bit strange, doesn't it? But that is what women of the community will be doing when The Polk County News, Tryon Daily Bulletin and Tryon's Theatre's Motion Picture Cooking School comes to town on November 16th, 17th, and 18th, for three mornings from 10 to 11:30 o'clock.

There will be real lessons, too, lessons in measuring, mixing, and blending the ingredients for many recipes; in the preparation of such triumphs as a lattice-top fruit pie; in making delicious frozen desserts and salads; in laundering fine fabrics; and in planning healthful meals for growing children.

The camera has assembled all the expert information of trained home economists—not as a routine lecture, not as a formal "high-brow" demonstration, but as a real romance of home-making, full of suspense and charm, and informal chats from-one-good-cook-to-another.

There will be remarkable close-ups of each process in a series of model, conveniently-equipped kitchens — real, workable kitchens, (not the synthetic, false-front variety), where trained home-makers will plan and complete the preparation of several meals so the entire audience can see the process step by step.

The finished dishes, which will be shown in full color, will look as though they could be picked right out of the picture and eaten on the spot.

The class won't be all work, for
Continued on Page Three

CURB REPORTER

Was a guest last night at the football banquet for the Tryon team. The delicious meal was cooked and served by Miss Elizabeth Watson's home economics class. The banquet table in the class room was in the form of a "T" and was attractively decorated with fall flowers. The decorations, setting of table, and serving were all part of the girls' school training. Their efficient service brought forth hearty applause, and everyone interested in the progress of the school would have been highly pleased over the good work of the home economics class as well as with the splendid spirit of the football team which has gone out this year to battle heavier and more experienced teams. Supt. Schilleter and Coach Caldwell expressed their appreciation of the service given by people with cars who have kindly transported the boys to various games . . . . . Asheville Anne in her column in the Citizen-Times the other day taking stock of newcomers, said: "There's Laurence Holmes who is never called anything but "Flopsy" among friends. He hies from Tryon, where his family has a lovely informal garden. It is so lovely, in fact, that it was mentioned in a recent book on outstanding American gardens. "Flopsy" has a lot of guns and he likes all sports. His brother, George, was

Continued on Back Page