Home Economics Honor Players

Thursday night the home economics classes of the Tryon high school gave a dinner in honor of the football players. When the boys arrived they found the home economics room transformed into a festive scene. Tables were arranged in the form of a "T" with the color scheme yellow, green, and white being carried out with ivy and yellow and white chrysanthemums. White candles marked the head of the table and they were flanked on each side by white chrysanthemums. Yellow crepe paper was placed down the center of the tables and white individual mats were used. At the intervals were yellow chrysanthemums and ivy was between them. The menu consisted of a:

Grapefruit cocktail; chicken à la king; hot rolls; potato souffle; green beans; fruit salad; angel food cake; whipped cream and nuts; coffee and mints.

This was served by Mary Gaze, Evelyn McClure, Margaret Ballew, Doris McClure and Evelyn Taylor-Tanner. After dinner a few words of appreciation and praise were spoken by Messrs. Caldwell, Schilleter, McGeachy and Vining. Henry McGeachy, as acting captain, thanked the coach and the men of the team for their services.

Just from reading this account you would think that these were the only girls who took part in this affair but the entire second year class aided in the preparation of the food. The following girls arranged the flowers for the occasion: Mary Newman, Barbara
