

Miss Rebecca Hoskins, superintendent of Public Welfare for Polk county was elected secretary of the Western Carolina district association at their meeting in Brevard on Tuesday.

Barring unforeseen delays, the new Tryon Theatre will open on Monday evening, December 5th. Among the films booked for early showing are The Great Waltz; Army Girl; Sweethearts; The Citadel; Drums; Cowboy and the Lady; Trade Winds, and Dickens Christmas Carol.

John Moore, W. W. Creasman and J. W. Taylor are on a deer hunt in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Haynes have moved from "Lynncoke" back to their home "Wren's Nest."

Mrs. Isabel Kelly and daughter, Miss Barbara Kelly have gone to Dayton, Ohio, to spend Thanksgiving at their home.

Masons! Don't forget the annual supper-frolic at Sunnydale on Thursday, December 8th at 7 p. m. See some sleight o' hand tricks; hear the man sing like the "devil"; hold everything for that date. Good eats. Lots o' fun.
