Reception For New Rector

A reception for the Rev. Charles L. McGavern, new rector of the Church of the Holy Cross, was held on Friday evening at the Parish House which was attractively decorated with beautiful yellow, brown and red leaves and fall flowers. Those in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bacon, the Rev. Charles L. McGavern, Mrs. George H. Holmes, Mr. Douglas S. Blois. At the long candle lit table laden with delicious sandwiches and cakes, tea and coffee were poured by Mrs. James C. Kimberly, Mrs. F. W. Crandall and Mrs. H. H. Parmelee. A large number of guests from the various churches of the community welcomed the new minister who came here last month from Buffalo, New York.

CURB REPORTER

The other day three men from Greenville Lions club came in to the Ballenger Co., and asked the Curb Reporter if he knew how they could get in touch with Mrs. Coolidge and invite her to Greenville Friday night to a benefit performance for underprivileged children. The men were told that it is a custom in Tryon to help all the celebrities who come here to live just as privately as they desire and have opportunity to rest, play or work without interference from newspaper men, photographers, autograph seekers, gazing spectators and personal invitations to public affairs. The men were also told that Mrs. Coolidge was
