MOTION PICTURES OF CHAPE HILL JUBILEE AT PARISH HOUSE

The public is invited to see free motion pictures of the "Carolina Jubilee at Chapel Hill" tonight at 7:30 at the Boy Scout Court of Honor at the Parish House. Scout Executive R. M. Schiele who was director of public relations during the Jubilee made these interesting pictures which show much of the Scout activities at the University of North Carolina. Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln will be in charge of the Court of Honor. The public is invited.

To Teach Men How To Play

Dr. W. P. Jackson, former field secretary of the National Recreational Association, who is now making his home in Tryon, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon and he will try to interest the Kiwanians in learning how to play. He will endeavor to bring out the kid in C. M. Howes, J. N. Jackson, et al. The program will be in charge of James Brownlee.

TO ADDRESS INTER-CLUB GARDEN CLUB COUNCIL

Mrs. Clarence Owens of Columbia, S. C., will address the Inter-Garden club council on Tuesday from 3 to 5 p. m., at the Cleveland Hotel in Spartanburg. She will lecture on Christmas decorations, emphasizing the saving of the slowly growing evergreens in cooperation with the conservation program. Admission 25c.

Willie B. Sane

Willie B. Sane, a young man of the Landrum section, who was arrested on Saturday night by Tryon police on a charge of drunkenness and lodged in the local jail, committed suicide about 5 o'clock Sunday morning by hanging himself with his belt which he fastened to the top of the cell. The body was first discovered about 7 o'clock. Coroner W. A. Bridges held an inquest soon afterwards and the body was taken to Landrum where funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist church with Dr. E. E. Bomar and the Rev. C. B. Prince officiating. Interment in Landrum cemetery. Active pallbearers will be Frank Dodd, B. B. Dempsey, Furman Bishop, Tennyson Ballew, Frank Carruth and Willie Watson.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Bertha Mantooth Sane; a son, Bobby Sane; his father, Bert Sane; three brothers, Jesse Sane, and Leroy Sane, both of Landrum; and Hardie Sane of Hickory, N. C., and one sister, Mrs. Riley Jackson of Landrum, S. C.
