Filling Stations to Close

All Tryon filling stations will close tomorrow, Thursday, at 1 o'clock in observance of Thanksgiving Day.

DAVIS—HINES

Announcements have been received in Tryon of the engagement of Miss Cora Jane Davis of Greenville and Anderson to Mr. John Allen Hines of Greenville, formerly of this county. The wedding will take place on December 7th. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. John M. Davis of Anderson, S. C., and is prominent in business circles of Greenville, where she is on the staff of a financial institution. Mr. Hines is a native of Green Creek and was formerly in business in Columbus. He is well-known throughout this section, being in the automobile business in Greenville. A number of parties for the bride-elect are being held in Greenville and Anderson.

THANKSGIVING ITEMS

The Personal Service Committee of the W. M. U. of the First Baptist church will carry a basket of fruit and candy to the inmates of the county home. This has been a custom of this church for 25 years. Mrs. H. L. Arledge is in charge of the committee.

George A. Cathey returned Tuesday from deer hunting in the mountains and brought back a buck.

The meeting of the Baptist Business Women's Circle has been postponed to Thursday, December 1st, at the home of Mrs. N. L. Wilson.

Union Thanksgiving Service Thursday

- The Gloria Patria.
- The Scripture Lesson—Dr. Geo. F. Taylor.
- Prayer—Rev. B. G. Henry.
- Offering.
- Offertory, "Come Ye Thankful."
- Sermon—Rev. Charles F. McGavern.
- Hymn, "God of Our Fathers," No. 496.
- Benediction — Dr. Charles G. Sewall.

IMPOSTER !

A young man, giving his name as Jimmy Duncan, a graduate of Tryon high school, has been soliciting subscriptions for magazines. No person by that name was ever graduated from Tryon school. If he calls at your door, please phone Police Chief Kiser. The subscriptions may be all right, even though solicited under false pretense.

The Lanier library will not be open on Thanksgiving Day.
