Christmas Bazaar And Tea Wednesday

Plans for this year's Christmas Bazaar and Tea of St. Agnes Guild, which is to be held Wednesday afternoon, December 7, from 3 to 6 o'clock, in the Parish House, are practically complete.

The ladies of the Guild have surpassed their most ardent expectations in providing attractive features for their guests, and have added several features not heretofore publicly announced.

For example, there is to be a palmistry booth, to be conducted by Mrs. Daniel Boone, 3rd, where all doubts as to what the future may hold for you may be satisfactorily solved.

And the children of Tryon, for whom there will be several features, particularly a Donald Duck grab bag, are to receive a special dispensation—that is to say, any of them, up to 12 years of age, will be admitted for the very modest sum of 15 cents.

Above 12 years, the admission charge is only 25 cents, a mere pittance compared with the enjoyment that is guaranteed to every guest.

The scenic setting for this elaborate effort by the ladies of St. Agnes Guild, has been devised by Mrs. Harkness Smith. It is the general belief—one might say, the unanimous belief—that the center of attraction, at least for a time, will be the tea table, presided over by Mrs. Julian C. Calhoun. The general arrangements for the Tea have been made by Mrs. F. P. Bacon. Mrs. George

A. G. Story

A. G. Story, 66, of Lynn died Sunday night about 11 o'clock following an illness of about three years. He was formerly associated with his son, C. O. Story, in the grocery business. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at Vilas, N. C., near Boone, at 2:30 p. m. Burial there in the Story family cemetery. A short service was held here today. The deceased is survived only by his son, C. O. Story, of Lynn.

Adams - Millis Defeated Inman Saturday

The Adams - Millis basketball team defeated Inman Mills at the Tryon school gymnasium by a score of 31-25 on Saturday night in the opening game of the local basketball season. Adams-Millis will play another game on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the Tryon gymnasium. Saturday's game showed that both teams can put the ball in the basket and the A.-M.'s margin of 6 points can easily be wiped out if the local men let up the least bit. The Adams-Millis team is composed of Alfred Buchanan, Joe Ritchey, Keith Arledge, William Hines, Harold Culler, Jack Walker, Joe Heiser, A. M. Holbert, Boyd Lawter, Otho Swain.

HOOD AT KIWANIS

The Rev. George F. Hood, pastor of the Tryon Methodist church, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. The program will be in charge of Herbert Butler.
