Lightner Rites On Friday

Funeral services for Clarence Ashley Lightner, 76, who passed away on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his home here, will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Cross, (Episcopal). Services will be conducted by Bishop Frank Hale Touret, the Rev. C. P. Burnett, and the rector, the Rev. Charles L. McGavern. Interment will be in Tryon cemetery by the side of his beloved wife who passed on in May of this year.

The pallbearers will be as follows: A. M. Law, Julian B. Hester, Major Bernard Sharp, Dr. A. J. Jervey, Senator F. P. Bacon, Samuel A. Bingham.

Those friends who desire to send flowers are requested to send them direct to the McFarland Funeral home instead of to the Lightner residence.

The deceased is survived by the following children: Martha F. (Mrs. Daniel F. Boone) of Winston-Salem, N. C.; Alice M. (Mrs. Ernest J. Hopf) of New York City, Theodore Lightner of New York, and Dr. Clarence M. Lightner of Durham, N. C. All the sons and daughters will come to Tryon for the funeral rites.

Mr. Lightner was born on January 24, 1862, at Binghampton, N. Y., the son of the Rev. Milton and Martha Hurley Lightner. He obtained his education at the University of Michigan and was licensed to practice law in Michigan in 1888, and married Frances McGraw of Detroit in 1892.

He was for many years senior member of the firm of Lightner,

Oxydol and Crisco Use Daily Bulletin

The manufacturers of the world famous products Oxydol soap and Crisco shortening have an advertisement in today's Bulletin. H. G. Nash, Jr., representative from Asheville was in Tryon Wednesday to make arrangements for advertisements to appear in the "world's smallest daily newspaper" where they will keep company with other national advertisers such as Kelvinator, Frigidaire, Philco, RCA-Victor, Palmolive, Octagon, Super Suds, Coca-Cola, Chevrolet, Orange Crush, Nu-Grape, Iron Fireman Stoker, I. E. S. Lamps, Firestone Tires, Hotpoint Electric Ranges and many local firms who have found that their advertisements in the little Bulletin get the greatest results for the money spent.
