George Vanderhoefs Purchase Land

Mr. and Mrs. George Vanderhoef, Jr., of Greenwich, Conn., and New York City have purchased an additional acreage adjoining their property, the Tower Hill, in the Hunting Country. The sale was made through C. J. Lynch.

A Request

Chief Kiser makes a request for all business people and those employed in stores and offices on Trade street to please park their cars off Trade street or he will be forced to follow a more severe rule. The parking on Trade street is getting so serious that customers can't get to the business houses.

Basketball Tonight

Adams-Millis and Spindale Town team will play basketball tonight in the Tryon gymnasium at 8 o'clock. Admission for adults 25c and for school children 15c, according to an advertisement in today's Bulletin.

Court of Honor Monday

The Polk County Boy Scout Court of Honor with Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln presiding, will meet on Monday night at 7:30 at the Parish House.

No Fireworks In Town

Police Chief Hague Kiser stated this morning that there is a town ordinance against shooting of fireworks within the corporate limits of the Town of Tryon and that all violators will be prosecuted.

CURB REPORTER

Tryon Bank & Trust Co. looks good with its new coat of paint trimmed in light green. The painter's ladder fell against the new neon sign on the Theatre marquee and damaged it A little Negro boy hearing about all these Tryon sportsmen killing so many deer asked his mama if Santa Claus would come this year if they killed all the deer. He was very much worried A year's subscription to the world's smallest daily newspaper is getting to be a popular Christmas present to an increasing number of people. Jennings Ford who is in the Navy on the Pacific Ocean appreciates the Bulletin so much that he is sending it as a Christmas present to his sister, Mrs. J. V. Hall, in Florida and to another sister, Mrs. Spletstoezer (Airmar Ford) of Minnesota Robert Dedmond says that there is still some fire burning at the Mill Farm place which was destroyed by fire over two weeks ago. He thinks that it must be the coal pile which like an old pine stump will burn for weeks under the ground Tom Costa who gave away 50 pairs of shoes to needy school children last Christmas visited a number of schools the past week to see what he could do this year and found only a few children that couldn't go to school because they had no shoes. He says that indi-
