

Adams-Millis Lose Close Game

The Adams - Millis basketball team lost to Converse Mills 30-34 on Wednesday night at the Tryon gymnasium. Converse led the locals by 11 points in the first half but in the last half the Tryon team rallied and outplayed the visitors but could not over come the lead of the first half. Tryon All Star Girls lost to the Hendersonville girls 19-28 just prior to the boys' game. Bill Blackwell of Milligan college, refereed the games.

Tryon Hounds

The Tryon Hounds will meet on Saturday, Dec. 24 at the Mizzen Top in the Hunting Country. Hounds will leave kennels at 10:30 a. m.

The Tryon Methodist program will be presented tonight at the church at 7:30 p. m. The program consists of recitations and a pageant, "Gifts Unto the Manger". The public is invited.

St. Luke's hospital can use any surplus vegetables, fruit, jams, jellies, etc. A Christmas box for the hospital is being prepared at Jackson's store and will be sent to them on Friday afternoon.

John Paul Lucas of the Duke Power Co., is gradually recovering at Duke Hospital, according to reports received. Mr. Lucas is general sales and merchandise manager of the Duke Power Co., and has many friends in this section.

TOWN OF TOMORROW

New York.—"Tomorrow Town" a far advanced concept of community design and housing, is to be a feature of the New York World's Fair 1939. The "Town," designed for a population of 3,500, will have 21 demonstration homes of 4 to 10 rooms each costing from $3,00 to $17,000.

4-H CLUB MEETINGS START, JAN. 9

Plans have been made to start 4-H club meetings on January 9. The following schedule will be observed:

Columbus, Monday, Jan. 9; Green Creek Seniors, Tuesday, Jan. 10; Green Creek Juniors, Wednesday, Jan. 11; Sunny View, Thursday, Jan. 12; Mill Spring, Friday, Jan. 12; Saluda, Tuesday, Jan. 17.

4-H PARTIES AND RECREATION

4-H club Christmas and recreation parties have been requested by 4-H club members of Sunny View, Columbus and Green Creek. Meetings were held on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights. The new Home Agent, Miss Garrison, was present.

Entertainment and Turkey contest at St. Luke's C. M. E. church tonight. Public invited.

Penland Handwrought Pewter in attractive sets on sale at the Mountain Industries, next to the Post Office.—Adv. tf.

Remember your friends at Christmas with delicious Honey Candy made from Halifax River Brand Honey. Sold in attractive holiday gift boxes at Missildine's Pharmacy. Special orders by Alexandrine Louradour, Saluda, N. C.—Adv. 13, 15, 19, 22.

CAPONS

Give Us Your Order
For Home-Grown
Capons

Andrews & Swann

PHONE 44