

Welfare Work In Polk County

—Continued from Page One—
of the organization, and that plans are being considered for a similar entertainment at Cooper's Gap.

The Council decided to undertake its annual financial campaign, February 1st, for the support of the work of the Helping Hand society and the American Women's Hospitals. Mrs. John Washburn, Mrs. W. H. Burtenshaw were made the campaign committee.

CURB REPORTEC

—Continued from Page One—
Claus again this year and has already bought a lot of clothes and things for families as far out as Hickory Grove. A number of kind people are in cahoots with him. They are furnishing the money to buy the clothes, etc., but don't want to bother about doing the work of getting the things and distributing them. Some of them want to help some really worthy families but don't want it known that they are doing it because they would be having some solicitors after them throughout the year. So if you have a big heart and want to help some people without them knowing it, there's a tip for you.

ATTENTION !

Holiday Tea at the Lanier Library Friday, December 30th, from 3:30 to 6. For reservations please call the Library or Mrs. F. P. Bacon, 43, or Mrs. Parmelee, 198-W.

DANCE

Under ST. AGNES GUILD
At SUNNYDALE
Couple or Stags . . . $1.00
TUESDAY, DEC. 27th

Polk county farmers have just received checks for $286.52 in payment of 13,565 pounds of milk sold on the cream route, according to an announcement by County Agent J. A. Wilson.

Mrs. J. C. Chaplin and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Richey, of Sewickley, Pa., are guests at Pine Crest Inn. The Richeys had a cottage in Tryon ten years ago and have been back for occasional visits.

Miss Ella Lee Yates, who teaches at Norwood, N. C., and Miss Lucile Yates of Meredith college, Raleigh, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Yates, at Landrum during the holidays.

For Careful and Efficient
RADIO SERVICE
Call
Avant Electric Co
PHONE 51

Washday backaches and bad tempers are out of date . . . now that your modern laundry can take work from you and give you more time for increased pleasure. Our low prices on wet and finished wash make washing at home foolish.

RECTOR'S LAUNDRY
PHONE 212