"BEES"

"Keep yourselves busy with divine Love. Then you will be toilers like the bee, always distributing sweet things, which if bitter to sense, will be salutary as Soul; but you will not be like the spider which weaves webs that ensnare."—Mary Baker Eddy.

Mrs. George Miller is spending the holidays with her son and other relatives at Rochester, New York.

Mrs. U. S. Gibbs has returned to Mill Spring from Rutherfordton hospital where she had a major operation.

Miss Madge Etris of Canton, Ohio, will arrive Sunday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. S. A. Slack.

Miss Katherine Acker and Warren Acker of Fletcher are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Acker.
