

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c Per Copy (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) Per Copy 1c

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, DEC. 29 1938

Costume Ball Is Gay Affair

One of the most attractive dances seen in Tryon in years was the costume ball at Oak Hall hotel on Wednesday evening. The Grand March was a colorful event with Spanish, Dutch, German, Scotch and costumes of other nationalities in the parade. The judges were Mrs. G. L. Canfield, Mrs. Carter Brown, Mrs. Frederick Gignoux and Mrs. Roysse Jackson. They admitted great difficulty in choosing the winners from such a large number of attractive costumes. First prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jervey, Jr. Mrs. Jervey wore a costume of Christmas greetings and Mr. Jervey's costume had the picture of a Christmas tree on the front and a fireplace, with stockings hanging from the mantel on the back. Very clever. Honorable mention was given Donald Wing, dressed just like those mountain men you see in the Esquire, wearing long black beard, a false nose, a cob pipe, a gun in one hand and leading a hound dog with the other. He was a scream. Miss Hope Rogers, wearing a beautiful old fashioned gown of her grandmother's, Miss Elizabeth Avant wearing a beautiful dress of the blue heavens, Miss Betty Double-day as a Spanish senorita, Miss Ruth Lincoln, in a gorgeous, blue, colonial dress and white wig, "Chuck" McLean as Happy New Year, Carol Leonard as Dopey, and Walter Newman as an Arab chieftan, all came in for honorable mention from the judges. It was a nice party and bound to be repeated next year. Bill Daven-

Continued on Back Page

NEW PASTOR

Dr. W. M. Elliott recently has assumed the pastorate of the Landrum Presbyterian and Saluda, N. C., churches it has been announced. He came to Landrum from Colorado, Texas, where he held the pastorate of the same church for more than 20 years.

Under Dr. Elliott's pastorate, morning worship services will be held at 11:15 o'clock and vesper services at 5 o'clock on the first and third Sundays of each month Sunday school will be held every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

HOLIDAY TIME—HOLIDAY

The Lanier library will be cheerily decorated on Friday, the 30th, and tables set for guests. Come in numbers large or small, or if you are alone there will be one Dutch Treat Table, where you will meet friends or strangers and over the tea cups become acquainted. The tea and coffee will be served hot, and the refreshments will hold to the usual high standards of Lanier library teas. The price is 50c and you will be welcomed by the hostesses, Mrs. Parmelee and Mrs. Sharp.

BRIEF ITEMS

Miss Rachel Johnson is entertaining tonight with a dance at Sunnydale Log Cabin.

Ernest Kerhulas is completing plans to close the year at Sunnydale on Saturday night with a big dance. Music furnished by Dell Padgett's orchestra.

Mack Thompson, sentenced in 1937 in Polk Superior court, to serve from five to seven years, for assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, was paroled by Governor Hoey on Wednesday.