

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c Per Copy (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) Per Copy 1c

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 11, 1939

Campbell Rites

A short service for John A. Campbell, 72, who passed away at the hospital on Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, will be held at the McFarland Funeral Home on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Chas. L. McGavern, rector of the Church of the Holy Cross will officiate. Mr. Campbell was a native of New York. He is survived by his two sisters, Miss C. F. Campbell and Miss Jennie Campbell, at the Normandie in Tryon.

Miss Ball Entertains Interested Audience

The first of the series of recitals and talks on music by Miss Frances de Villa Ball, was well attended and much enjoyed at the Lanier library on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The rest of the course promises to be even more interesting. Course tickets for the remaining programs have been reduced to $1.50 and are on sale at the Lanier library or Missildine's.

Basketball Tonight

Adams - Millis Corp., basketball team will play the Greer Mill team tonight at 8 o'clock at the Tryon school gymnasium.

Dancing Tonight

The regular weekly dance by the "Town Hall" friends will be held tonight at Sunnydale Log Cabin. Admission 50c couple.

Julian Hester Heads Tryon Bank

Julian B. Hester, for nearly eight years, executive vice-president and cashier of the Tryon Bank & Trust Co., was elected president of the institution at the annual meeting of the stockholders on Tuesday afternoon. The nomination was made by the retiring president, Dr. E. E. Missildine, who has been the head of the bank since its organization. Dr. Missildine was elevated to the chairmanship of the Board of Directors composed of W. C. Ward, J. S. Massenburg, N. R. Rector, Julian B. Hester, C. M. Howes, L. A. Avant.

Other officers elected were W. C. Ward, vice - president; John G. Landrum, Jr., cashier; Miss Alva Jackson, assistant cashier.

The statement of the bank showed that the institution had the best year in its history which has recorded a steady growth from year to year. Organized in 1931 (during the depression) with a capital of $25,000 and about $15,000 in deposits the new bank with a clean sheet, and its quarterly statements as published in the Bulletin from time to time have showed remarkable progress. The statement published last week showed in addition to the capital of $25,000, a surplus of $50,000 and deposits of nearly half a million dollars. Total resources and liabilities were listed at $533,273.21.

The Tryon Bank & Trust Co., is a member of the State Bankers Association and of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal De-

Continued on Back Page