

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c Per Copy (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) Per Copy 1c

Vol. 11. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JAN. 19, 1939

Speaker at Rotary

Rev. E. Gibson Davis of Spartanburg will be the speaker for the Rotary club on Friday at 1 o'clock at Sunnydale. Dr. Davis will have for his subject: "Can Civilization Conquer Crime?"

Rev. B. G. Henry will be in charge of the meeting.

Grand Privilege

On the way home from the Lanier club's musical evening Tuesday night some one remarked, "What a privilege for us to have Miss Ball in Tryon this winter—a person with such a wonderful command of her subject and such an interesting way of communicating it."

We may never again have as fine an opportunity of approaching "modern" music from its beginnings in the Eleventh Century, and building up an understanding of its inner workings, as well as hearing it so beautifully played.

The Lanier library was well filled last night with an appreciative audience. You could have heard the proverbial "pin drop" while Miss Ball, after giving a brief review of the earlier changes of form, went on to a clear analysis of the Fugue and played 2 fine examples with their accompanying Preludes. Time was lacking for her to give the Sonatas of Handel and Scarlatti that she had planned to give, but upon the urgent request of her hearers Miss Ball did play one lovely example of the Handel Sonata in two movements.

Next Tuesday Miss Ball has promised to devote the hour to

Continued on Back Page

Local Scout Honors

At the annual meeting and banquet of the Piedmont Council of the Boy Scouts of America held in Gastonia Monday night Nelson Jackson, Jr., was elected vice-president of the Council and Seth M. Vining, vice-president of Polk County Troop No. 1, of Tryon, W. A. Schilleter, Scoutmaster, was one of six troops in the Council to receive an award as a Standard Troop for having met the necessary requirements established a year ago. There are 149 Scout troops in the Council.

Fire Destroys Residence In Ioka Hills Section

Fire of undetermined origin, completely destroyed the house in Ioka Hills belonging to P. S. Cecil of Spartanburg about 5 a. m., this morning. The structure, unoccupied at the time of the fire, was formerly occupied by G. Isham Henderson of Tryon. It was located about one-half mile out from Lynn on the Columbus highway.

Bowling Results

Bush Whackers: Nessmith, 377, Taylor, 373; Butler 299; Honeman, 367; Brock 348; Brooks 336, total 2,100.

Martin's 1-Stop Service: Martin, 287; Rhodes 334; Foster 318; Owens 360; Scoggins 281; Lankford, 339, total 1,919.

This was a three game series and the Bush Whackers remain unbeaten, and welcome the challenge of any team or group of members who think they can compete with the undefeated champions.