TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 25, 1939

CURB REPORTER

The Adams-Millis basketeers are going to tackle the strong Victor team from Greer, S. C., tonight at the Tryon school gym . . . When the fire destroyed the Toy Shop building last Friday it also removed a large U. S. Department of Commerce airplane direction sign painted on the roof of the building. The sign bore a direction compass and the word TRYON in big 14-foot letters. Tryon being in an airplane, on the highway, railroad and at the foot of the mountains is a good direction point for aviators who have been flying over here with increasing frequency the past year . . . Getting back to the Florida trip we went via Columbia, S. C., where the legislature was in session in the capitol which still shows scars made by Sherman's cannon balls. Had lunch; then on to Savannah, Ga., where we spent the night. It rained all the way to the Georgia line. Savannah reminded us of General Oglethorpe and the settling of Georgia as the last of the 13 colonies. The city has a commercial atmosphere being a large ocean shipping point for naval stores, cotton, lumber, sugar, paper pulp, etc. Many of the streets had a run-down-at-the-heel look and dated back to 17 something. One beautiful street was said to be the longest street of palms in the world and on it were

Tryon Boys Down Flat Rock Boys, 24-18

In two games played at the Flat Rock gym last night, the Tryon high team split a double-header—with the girls of Tryon losing 49 to 6, while the Tryon boys played excellent ball to win their game by the score of 24 to 18.

The Flat Rock girls having a team with superior height and reserves had things their own way and ran away with the game.

The boys' game was close throughout with the local boys jumping into a lead which Flat Rock soon overhauled. The half ended with Flat Rock holding a 12 to 10 lead. At the beginning of the second half, Tryon forged ahead and were six points in front by the end of the game. The entire Tryon team played jam-up ball, doing excellent guarding and making all their shots count.

Boys line-up:

Tryon, 24. Jones, 6; Beatson, D., 7; Green, 3; Chapman, 1; Beatson, 3; Vining; Taylor.

Flat Rock, 18. Breman, 4; Taber, 4; Davenport; Jones, C.; Drake, 4; Kilpatrick, 4; Jones, J.; Andrews, Brookshine.

Referee: Foster.

Tryon high will play the strong Columbus team, Friday night at the Tryon gymnasium.
