time before and during a trip from Tryon to Saluda Stephenson made an assault on the young woman, put her out of his automobile, and left her lying on the highway, bruised and hurt. Another young woman was allegedly with Stephenson and Miss Sonner at the time.

When the complaint was filed, arrest and bail papers were issued for the defendant. He was taken into custody and released under bond.

Stephenson, now at his home in Saluda, was formerly a catcher with the Chicago Cubs and the Philadelphia Phillies of the National league. His most recent connection was with the Shreveport (La.) club of the Texas league. He is now a free agent.
