"Ferdinand the Bull" At Tryon Theatre Today and Friday

Walt Disney's noted Ferdinand the Bull, in technicolor, is being shown at Tryon Theatre today and Friday. The Bull came by mistake in place of Donald Duck. Also on the program are—

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY

'The Young In Heart'

With Janet Gaynor, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Billie Burke.

FRIDAY ONLY

'The Girl Downstairs'

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn have returned from New York where they were guests at Walter Damosch's birthday party. Mrs. Richard Tiner of Greenwich, Conn., accompanied them to Tryon. Mr. Tiner who has been doing successful research work in color photography is motoring down and will join her on Friday before going on to Florida.

Mrs. Margaret Culkin Banning returned today to Duluth following a few days rest at her home, Friendly Hills. On Monday at Lexington, Ky., Mrs. Banning delivered the mid-term commencement address at the University of Kentucky and was the first woman ever to deliver a commencement address there. While in Lexington she also opened the Community Fund at which time the Lucky Strike auctioneer assisted on the program to raise funds.

An Investment In Humanity

A committee of the Polk County Council of Social Agencies has just sent a letter to some of the friends of the Helping Hand and the Polk County Unit of the American Woman's Hospitals requesting annual contributions to the support of these two fine welfare organizations. If it were not for these two agencies many cases of distress would go unrelieved. Both of them have the help of experienced workers furnished by the county; and the money contributed is used to the best possible advantage.

The county, State and Federal organizations have done much for unemployment, and for old people and dependent children; but always there are cases, and very distressing ones, that fall outside of these classifications — unemployables not eligible for old age or dependency assistance; sickness and accidents in families living close to the poverty line; necessary operations; the need of glasses, crutches, artificial limbs; the coming of a baby into a home where no pre-natal or post-natal care could be given if it were not for the Polk County Unit of the American Women's Hospitals with its six and seven free clinics per month for under-privileged mothers. The possible list of types of cases is a long one.

These two organizations are your servants in any distressing situation that needs their attention. Your money is in a "gilt-edge" investment when you make your contribution to their continued support. If you did not receive a letter, that was an un-
