Nephew of C. M. Howes Saved At Sea

Reports are just coming in that four North Carolina dentists and a fishing guide were rescued as they clung to the sides of an overturned fishing cruiser off the coast of Florida. The five men were rescued when a party aboard the yacht, Maybick, New York restaurant official, sighted them bobbing in the water. They were given artificial respiration and taken to Craig in the Florida keys. They were reported later to have suffered only from the effects of exposure. The rescue took place on Wednesday but the news was delayed in reaching Miami. The men were Dr. R. R. Howes of Forest City, C. B. Young and David Abernathy of Hickory, C. B. Mott of Morganton and Capt. Laverne Sweeting, the guide.

Tryon High And Saluda Split Double-Header

In two games played at the Saluda gym last night, Tryon girls won over Saluda girls by a 9 to 7 score. The Tryon boys lost out by one point, 21 to 20.

The girls' game was a low scoring contest all the way, with the half ending 4 to 4. In the last quarter, the Tryon girls picked up and barely held their lead as the game ended.

The Tryon boys turned in a loose and regged game during the entire first half and were unable to make any headway against the good guarding of Saluda. In the second half with their play improving each minute, the Tryon quintet began to ring up goals
