State Law Sought For Roadside Control

According to dispatches from Raleigh, organizations and individuals in every section of North Carolina are at present insisting that the present General Assembly enact into law the bill that has been prepared by the Governor's Committee on Roadside Control and Development.

This bill, now before the General Assembly, provides for the zoning of certain areas along the highways, so as to preserve their natural beauty and protect them against ugly signs and eyesores.

North Carolina has been lagging behind many other states in the protection of its scenery and in regulating the use of its roadsides, according to opinion in Raleigh. But in recent months there has been a growing demand from every section of the State for more rigid control of the roadsides that extend beyond the right-of-way.—Contributed.

Amended Fishing Dates Are Quoted

R. B. Williams, Polk County Game Protector, quotes the following ruling concerning the fishing season in Polk county:

"That the closed season in and west of Alleghany, Wilkes and Rutherford counties and west of highway No. 18 in Burke and Caldwell counties shall be from March 1 to June 9 of each year, both dates inclusive, except that the closed season on trout (all species) shall be from September 1 to April 14, following, both dates inclusive."

Tryon Loses Two Games to Green Creek

Coach Nanney's Green Creek teams had things their own way last night at the Tryon gym and copped two games from the Tryon high boys and girls. The Green Creek girls led by their giant forward, Cudd, who alone scored 24 points took their game 36 to 21. During the second half the Tryon girls were able to play on even terms with the visitors with each team scoring 11 points.

The Green Creek boys had one of the fastest shooting outfits that Coach Nanney has developed yet. They threw goals from all angles of the court and during the first half scored 20 points to Tryon's five. In the second half, the playing of Fagan and Horn for Green Creek featured their attack, while Dutton Beatson and Vining stood out for Tryon.

Boys Lineup: Tryon (12). Jones, 0; Taylor, 2; Beatson, D., 3; Green, 0; Chapman, 2; Vining, 2; Beatson, A., 3.
