Communications

The doctors and nurses of St. Luke's hospital entertained on Tuesday evening at a beautiful dinner party in honor of the trustees and their wives. Hosts and guests, numbering thirty-four in all, gathered at the Gertrude Hardin Holbrook Memorial Nurses' Home, where the friendly greetings, the cheerful, bright spring flowers and mellow candle-light created a warm, welcoming atmosphere conducive to a delightful evening. One guest looked around and said, "No wonder our hospital is considered the best run place in the country—just look at the capable people who give so much of their time to it!" The whole affair was one of understanding, friendliness and mutual appreciation. At the meeting of the trustees, just before the dinner, Mr. Russell Walcott was elected to fill a vacancy on the board.—Contributed.

Income Tax Man Here Soon

Deputy Commissioner of Revenue S. S. Summey, who sums up your state income tax troubles will be at the Town of Tryon office on Friday, March 10th, for the purpose of assisting anyone making out North Carolina Income and Intangible Personal Property tax reports. The reports must be sent in by March 15th to avoid penalty.

Lenten Reading

A table in the Holden Reading Room of the Lanier library has been filled with books appropriate for Lenten Reading.

These books may be read at the library on opening days, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays; or may be drawn out for a short period if desired.

It is hoped that many will take advantage of this opportunity which is open to the public.

L. G. Southard Speaker At Rotary Friday

Lawrence G. Southard, prominent Spartanburg attorney and authority on the United States Constitution, will address the Tryon Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnysdale Log Cabin. Mr. Southard is the author of an interesting book on President Andrew Johnson. He is expected to touch on some phases of New Deal legislation. The program will be in charge of Attorney M. R. McCown.
