Opera By Lindsey Pleases Audience

The following extracts from an article in the Chattanooga Times will be of interest to Tryon friends of Dr. Edwin Lindsey, who formerly lived here and married a Tryon girl:

"Elizabeth and Leicester," romantic opera in four scenes, by Dr. Edwin S. Lindsey, was sung for a second time last night before an enthusiastic audience that filled to capacity the John A. Patten Memorial chapel at the University of Chattanooga. Members of the Tennessee Philological association, in convention here, were special guests.

Disclaiming any intention of following history verbatim, Dr. Lindsey discussed the structure of his opera before the curtain rose and took the orchestra by groups through five of the leading musical themes, four of which are his own compositions and one an old English march which was used for the first time with eclat in the entrance of the queen and with fine dramatic color throughout the remainder of the action.

The stage setting and costuming were elaborate, and a souvenir program was quaint and satisfyingly archaic in its phrasing.

A CONTRIBUTION

The Fifth grade of Tryon school will go to the park near the depot on Tuesday and will remove leaves, and trash from the park, as their contribution to Clean-Up Week.

Garden Pilgrimage For Pearson's Falls

In the interest of Pearson's Falls, the wildlife sanctuary of the Tryon Garden club, members of the club are planning a pilgrimage to the homes and gardens of the Hunting Country next Saturday afternoon, March 18.

Since the gardens are expected to be in leaf and blossom by that time, it is anticipated that there will be a large turn-out. There is great interest in the Hunting Country development, and this will be the first occasion that these homes and gardens will be open to the public.

The pilgrimage will leave Melrose avenue at 2 p. m. promptly, headed by a motorcycle patrolman, and will proceed at once to the Hunting Country, where the following homes will be visited at the times and in the order given:

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hill, 2 p. m., to 4 p. m.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Mahler, 3 p. m. to 5 p. m.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Perkins, 3:30 p. m., to 5 p. m. and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn, 4:30 to 6 p. m. Punch and cookies will be served at Mrs. Flynn's.

Tickets are available from Garden club members and are also on sale at Missildine's Pharmacy. The price is $1 each, including transportation. Where a car carrier as many as five passengers, one person will be admitted free.

Garden club members are counted on to furnish transportation to all pilgrims. Those members who have not already signified that they will furnish a car with driver
