

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY MARCH 20, 1939

Colored Movies of Charleston Tonight

Scout Executive R. M. Schiele will show colored motion pictures of historic Charleston, S. C., tonight at the Polk County Boy Scout Court of Honor at the Parish House. The public is invited. The Court will start at 7:30. The motion pictures about 8:30.

Junior Horsemanship Show Next Monday, the 27th

Tryon's first Junior Horsemanship show will be held next Monday afternoon at 2:30 near Vaughn's creek on the New Market road. There will be no entry fee and no admission charge. Ample seats for spectators. Wednesday's Bulletin will give a list of classes. Entries will close Saturday afternoon, March 25th.

Many Enjoy Pilgrimage

Over fifty cars of people made the Garden Club pilgrimage to the Hunting Country on Saturday afternoon. Judging from the visitors' overheard expressions of "How charming, beautiful, lovely, fascinating, etc." an enjoyable time was had by the guests who drove over from Asheville, Gaffney and other nearby communities to view these interesting homes so fascinating in their simplicity and uniqueness. They marvelled at the realness of things and absence of artificiality. The places visited were Many Levels, Chinquapin Farm, Cotton Patch, and Little Orchard where punch and cake were served.

AUCTION!

Come on March 24th, and LISTEN TO THE CHANT OF THE TRYON AUCTIONEER! Blablablahforforffiffive! SOLD — to Mrs. Housewife, for ONE DOLLAR AND TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. And Mrs. Housewife, happy and smug, will return to her home with the coveted parcel under her arm; smug because she is in possession of a bargain and happy in the knowledge that 50% of her purchase will go towards decreasing the mortgage on Pearson's Falls. For Mrs. Housewife like every one else in Tryon, takes a justifiable pride in the scenic grandeur of the Falls and the rare plants and flowers that abound there and is given to reminiscing over the merry, informal picnics she attended, when a grilled chop or steak was the "piece de resistance."

That the interest in the forthcoming auction sale is not confined to housewives, is demonstrated daily. Even the male members of the community are taking an active interest in the venture, motivated either by a love of nature or the acquisition of a bargain. Those of you who have not yet done so, go through your household today; cast an Argus eye over that accumulation of the past years that has lain so long, unused. And be utterly ruthless! What if Aunt Sophronia did give you that fire screen that is too small to be of protective value? It might have just the dimensions for somebody else's. And why keep that casserole that

-----Continued from Page Two-----