Better Railway Service Secured from Miami, Fla.

Southern Railway officials have announced a new train will be added to the schedule from Miami, Fla., to Asheville on April 8, thereby providing daily through service both ways.

It was explained under the present arrangement, tourists have been compelled to change trains at Jacksonville, Fla., for Asheville. Officials believe establishment of the through service will increase the number of visitors here during the spring and summer months from southern Florida.

Forest Fires Near

Forest rangers are fighting a dozen fires on the North Carolina-South Carolina line in Henderson county west of Tryon.
