THE GYMKHANA

The annual spring Gymkhana was held at Harmon Field Friday afternoon under sponsorship of the Tryon Riding & Hunt club. It was directed by Mrs. Samuel A. Bingham, Jr., and a large number of persons took part in exciting games.

The setting for the event was beautiful; new green foliage and perfect weather. The spirit of fun was in the atmosphere. The Tryon-Saluda high school band, under director Lands played its best and added much to the gala air. They were assisted by former members, director Pat Garnett of Spartanburg, Mrs. Monroe (Nellie Rushing) director of the Gaffney band, Miss Carolyn Slage of Limestone college and Edward Manville of the Clemson college band. The Tryon Boy Scouts in uniform were acting as guides. Various members of the Tryon Riding & Hunt club acted as judges and assisted in promoting the show. Judges included friends from such far away places as Duluth, Minn., and London, England.

One narrow escape from serious injury occurred when Miss Susanne Blanchard and Norman Hall were riding double and the horse reared up and fell back, throwing both riders off. But Hall while falling pulled Miss Banchard out of the way of the horse's body. Veteran Charlie Lynch who has seen hundreds of horse shows says that it was the quickest thinking in an emergency that he had ever seen.

One of the chief features of the afternoon was the gav nineties parade, in which Mrs. Bingham took
