Mixed Foursome Results

The Four Ball Mixed Foursome tournament held at the Tryon Country club on Wednesday was a very successful affair with 18 players entering the event. First place went to Mrs. Jefferson Coe of Worcester, Mass., and James Rowe of Princeton university. Their gross score was 100; less 23 handicap; net 77. Second place went to Mr. and Mrs. John K. Howell of Cleveland, Ohio, whose gross score was 106; less 28 handicap; net 78.

No Dance Friday

On account of the Good Friday services at the various churches the management at Sunnydale has cancelled its scheduled dance for Friday night.

WORSHIP SERVICES AT METHODIST FRIDAY

A service of worship will be held at the Methodist church Friday night at 8 o'clock. Sermon subject: "The Last Words of Christ." The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES

A Good Friday Service will be held in Erskine Memorial Congregational tomorrow (Friday) night at 7:45 o'clock. The pastor, Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, will speak on the theme, "The Light of the Cross." The vested choir will sing "Gethsemane" by Richard Redhead.

An Asheville Window Advertises Tryon

James B. Keith, vice-president and general manager of Iveys, is paying a tribute to the Tryon Horse and Hound Show by arranging a special window display, starting today and continuing until the 13th of April. The Biltmore Forest Horse Show Association trophy will be on view until the day of the show and there will be a display of show ribbons, contributed by Mrs. Samuel A. Bingham, Jr. Photographs of exhibitors in the show have been loaned by William McGrath, photographer.

These items will be in the foreground of a display that includes riding clothes and accessories. In a recent letter to the chairman of the publicity committee, Mr. Keith writes, "We want to assure you that it is a pleasure to co-operate with the citizens of your town in putting on such a fine show and to assure you at all times of our interest in the welfare of Tryon. We will also call attention to the Horse and Hound show in our store's advertising."

McGrath At Rotary

James M. Baker will be in charge of the Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale Log Cabin. The guest speaker will be Thomas W. McGrath, the well-known photographer who has had interesting experiences photographing prominent people and important events all over the country. Mr. McGrath has made many beautiful pictures of local riding activities.
