The price per plate, $1. Reservations may be made through Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kerhulas. Judges and exhibitors will be guests of the Horse Show.

Captures Stills; Two Men On Bond

Deputy Sheriffs Scoggins, Melton and Case invaded Cooper's Gap mountain section on Friday afternoon and captured a steamer style whiskey distillery which was in operation. Clifford Arledge and Garland Corn, were arrested and charged with operating the still. They were released on bond. Taken with the outfit were 650 gallons of beer and 12 gallons of whiskey. The officers also visited Butler mountain section in Columbus township and found a still with 300 gallons of beer. It was a small outfit, but no one was found operating it.

The members of the Riding & Hunt club, members of the Horse and Hound Show committees, and the exhibitors are invited to the Erskine farm for refreshments immediately after the Horse Show on Wednesday afternoon.
