Miss Mary Edwards Recitation Winner

The recitation contest of the Stearns high school, held on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, was won by Miss Mary Edwards.

Mrs. Woodrow Hague, sponsor of the contest deserves much credit in the presentation of the six contestants and her ability to coach.

To pick a winner from the six was somewhat difficult. Each one in the contest deserves much credit for their ability to deliver their offering to a large, enthusiastic and appreciative audience.

Those who are due much credit of their fine work are: Carolyn Clark, Nellie Case, Lucy Taylor, Irene Williams, Mary Edwards, and Pauline Davis.

The winner of this contest will receive the Outlook club medal.

On Thursday night at Stearns school, Clarence O. Ridings of Forest City, district solicitor, will deliver the literary address to the graduating class of Stearns high school. Mr. Ridings is an alumnus of the school.—(As I See It).
