"God's Country and The Woman"

Manager Nessmith of Tryon Theatre, states that a change in Friday's program from "Never Say Die", with Martha Raye and Bob Hope, to James Oliver Curwood's "God's Country and the Woman" was due to the prints in this territory being damaged. Mr. Nessmith also states the picture secured to replace the one damaged, will no doubt meet the approval of those whom are familiar with the great works of Curwood.

Mrs. James Brooks of Landrum is a patient at St. Luke's hospital.
