

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, APR. 26, 1939

CURB REPORTEK

Dr. Fuldner has just received from his sister, a clipping from the Milwaukee Sentinel of last Friday. Has two scenes of Tryon Horse Show, one of Jo Jo Kimberly taking the jump with Sunrab and the other with Lefty Flynn presenting the ribbon to Jack, Bob and Jo Jo in the parent-child class, while Ernst Mahler and Peter look on Three more pictures appear in next Sunday's Washington Times-Herald which has already appeared on local news stands. They show mountain scenery with the oxen, cart, hound and men all gathered around the fire, another of the cowboy taking the jump and another of Lefty Flynn talking to Judge Skidy Von Stade St. Agnes Guild which is gathering rummage now for a sale on May 6th, furnishes flowers twice a week to all the wards in St. Luke's hospital

Girl Scout Official Meets Leaders Here

Mrs. Cushman, of Greenville, S. C., national official of the Girl Scout organization, addressed the Tryon Kiwanis club and a large number of guests including women members of the local Girl Scouts committee. Mrs. Hersey of the Greenville, S. C., committee, Mrs.

Continued on Page Three

J. C. Newman

J. C. Newman, 64, prominent farmer of Holbert Cove section near Saluda, died Tuesday afternoon about 3 o'clock. Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Silver Creek Baptist church. The deceased is survived by his widow, the former Miss Maggie Thompson, and the following children: Mrs. Arnold Arledge of Mill Spring; S. M. Newman of Tryon; Miss Geneva Newman of Richmond, Va.; J. W. Newman of Columbus; T. T. Newman of Rosman; Mrs. Wade Pace of Richmond; L. G. Newman and Miss Annie Lee Newman of Saluda. Also eight grandchildren.

Virginia Egerton Has Achievement Record

Newspapers throughout the state are printing the picture of Miss Virginia Egerton of Mill Spring and a brief sketch of her achievement in 4-H club work. Miss Egerton has just been selected with three other students to represent North Carolina at the National 4-H club convention which meets in Washington, D. C. There are over a million and a quarter of 4-H club members in the nation and the election of Miss Egerton to represent North Carolina is considered a high honor not only for herself but for Polk county. Miss Egerton who is now a student at the University of North Carolina college for Women has been in 4-H club work for eight

Continued on Back Page