

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1939

CURB REPORTER

It's March again in Tryon and the gardens and trees are thankful for the rain . . . Two big events in Tryon Friday drew packed houses—the Flower Show in the afternoon at the Parish House and the Graded School Music Recital at the school auditorium in the evening . . . Tryon Kiwanians will meet Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon . . . The Directors' Trophy for the golf tournament this weekend is on display at the Ballenger Co., show window . . . The Womraths leave us Monday . . . and the Mahlers return to Wisconsin . . . Asst. Attorney-Gen. Gregory says osteopaths, chiropractors, etc., who are not licensed to practice general medicine are not qualified to issue marriage health certificates . . . Supt. Rebecca Hoskins and assistant Inez T. Tyler have returned from a state conference of Social Welfare officials in Charlotte . . . Sheriff W. D. Hines has returned from Atlanta, Ga. He was accompanied by H. L. Shelnuttt at the request of Solicitor C. O. Ridings upon papers charging forgery and embezzlement in amount totaling $55,000.00. Lee waived extradition and unless bond is arranged will be in Columbus jail until the August term of Polk County Superior Court . . .

Flower Show Held By Tryon Garden Club

The sixth annual Flower Show, sponsored by the Tryon Garden club, was held Friday afternoon at the Parish House. The theme was "Through the Garden Gate." The rooms were attractively decorated to represent a garden with lattice enclosure. Many beautiful and unusual exhibits were shown in 19 classes.

The judges were: Mrs. John Arrington, Mrs. George Stephenson and Mrs. Henry Donkle of Greenville, S. C.; Mrs. Arch Walker and Mrs. A. N. Chreitzberger, of Spartanburg, S. C., and Mrs. Clifford Hayes of Lyman, S. C.

Awards were made strictly on the point basis, and all exhibits having more than 90 points were given a blue ribbon. Special prizes were awarded in the classes for school children.

Mrs. Harkness Smith was in charge of the show, assisted by many committees.

Boutinieres and miniature corsages were sold by Girl Scouts.

Ribbons were awarded in all classes as follows:

Class 1—Specimen of bearded iris, blue ribbon, Miss Christobel Sawyer, Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mrs. Ralph Erskine, J. B. Hester, Sr., Mrs. Louis Avant, Mrs. Julian Calhoun; red ribbons, Miss Emma McFarland, Mrs. J. B. Hester, Sr.; yellow ribbons, Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr., Mrs. Maude G. Brand.

Class 2—Collection of non-bearded iris. Blue ribbons, Miss Emma

Continued on Page Five