Election Tuesday For Town, School

The Municipal election for the Town of Tryon and Special Charter District school will be held on Tuesday at the Town Hall on Maple street from 7 a. m., to 7 p. m. The Election Officials are Rufus Durham, registrar; Judges, W. W. Creasman and Eb Fisher. They will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock to try any challenges, remove names from the book of people who have moved away permanently or have died since last election.

The tickets to be voted on Tuesday will be for mayor, E. E. Misdine; for town commissioner, (vote for three), F. P. Bacon, R. O. Andrews, Ben White, W. Y. Wilkins. For cemetery commission (vote for three), R. H. Brady, Miss Anne Nash, Seth M. Vining. For the school board, (vote for three) S. Blois, Nelson Jackson, Jr., and James Lankford.

Garden Notes

The bearded iris is now taking the centre of the garden stage, and making what is for many of us the great show of the year. Nothing is more unsatisfactory than a neglected old iris bed, unfertilized, over crowded, and dwarfed, (and perhaps consisting of a rather dingy collection of colors in the first place), but give them room, air and good drainage, with a moderately good soil, and perhaps a little extra dose of acid phosphate or bonemeal, and noth-

Rev. B. G. Henry Wins Directors' Trophy

The Tryon Country club's Directors' Trophy offered as the feature prize in the golf tournament held on the local links during the weekend was won by Rev. B. G. Henry according to an announcement by Pro Larry Brooks. The gross score was 92, handicap 26, net 66. Second place went to Julian Calhoun with a gross of 85, handicap 15, net 70; and third place was taken by Bob Adams with a score of 90-17-73. The beautiful trophy has been on display at the Bel-lenger Co., for the past several days. Mr. Henry's name will be engraved on it and if he wins it three times it will become his permanent possession. Until then it will be offered twice a year for competition.
