

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1939

Baseball Saturday

Beaumont, a strong Carolina League team will come to Tryon on Saturday afternoon to play Adams-Millis at Harmon Field at 3:30 o'clock.

Headlines

In his reply to Hitler this morning, Minister Joseph Beck of Poland said NO and the German newspapers say he said it too roughly. France is backing Poland.

126,000 coal miners are on strike, the greatest in 17 years.

A new Ford sedan carrying a young couple and child crashed into the bank near W. S. Green's office Thursday night while enroute from Asheville to Spartanburg. The car was torn up but the passengers only slightly injured.

Tennis doubles match this afternoon at the Tryon Country club; Julian Hester and B. B. Bishop, Jr., versus Waverly Hester and Ed Armfield.

The Blue Goose Service Station in Columbus changed hands on Thursday, from Archie Allen to Ernest Gibbs.

21,868 persons have lost their driver's licenses in North Carolina. Most of them for driving while drunk.

Investments in the Tryon Federal Savings & Loan Association are insured up to $5,000.

The Rio Grande Cowboy show tonight at Columbus court house, featuring Little Joe, the Oklahoma Cowboy; Little Bobby, 10-year-old sing and dance; Fiddlin' Tex, Uncle Duck and Aunt Clara. Time 8 p. m.

CURB REPORTER

Thirteen camp grounds in the Pisgah National Forest will be opened to the public on May 15. They have outdoor fireplaces, wood, water, rustic tables and other facilities for the convenience of visitors . . . paw! paw! pa-a-w-aapaw! and boom! boom! will be heard tonight at the Tryon school auditorium when the Tryon-Saluda school band gives a free concert to all friends and the public in general. Your attendance will be a great encouragement . . . Five pictures of the Tryon riding activities and the hunter trials appear in the current issue of Town and Country Magazine. They were made by W. Thomas McGrath . . . When Ambassador Joe Kennedy entertained the King and Queen of England at dinner Thursday night he served Baltimore shad roe, Virginia ham, Georgia pickled peaches and strawberry shortcake. Among the guests were some who had visited Tryon recently The Honorable and Mrs. Reginald Winn and Viscount and Viscountess Astor . . . W. S. Green received a government check for over $100 yesterday in payment for kudzu plants sold to a soil conservation project in Alabama. The doctor has sold these soil building plants as far away as
—Continued on Back Page—