

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 1939

CURB REPORTER

Lefty Flynn is out again after several days in bed . . . Coleman Roberts, director of the N. C. exhibit at the World's Fair, writes E. Perry Manville, president of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce, thanking the people of the community for their Courtesy and Cooperation on the recent visit to Tryon of the young people in charge of the exhibit . . . This month's McCall Magazine has an interesting article about Dr. Rolla Eugene Dyer's scientific work in eradicating typhus fever. The noted scientist is a son of Rev. and Mrs. Rolla Dyer of Tryon. . . . Bill Ward, Jr., was recently elected vice-president of the Inter-Frat council at Georgia.

Continued on Page Three

Local Tinsmith Dies Suddenly

John W. McGuinn, who operated a tinsmith shop on Trade street for several years and commuted to Hendersonville, died suddenly Tuesday afternoon about 5:30 while at work in the construction of a filling station on Main street in Hendersonville. Coroner J. F. Brooks of Henderson county expressed the belief that the deceased died of acute indigestion. Mr. McGuinn is survived by his widow and several children.

Two Polk County Prisoners Released

Governor Clyde R. Hoey paroled a number of prisoners this week according to news from Raleigh and two of the men were from Polk county: Those paroled included: A. C. Smith, convicted in Polk county last year on charges of assault with a deadly weapon and sentenced to serve 18 months on the roads. Ralph Edwards, Polk county, assault with deadly weapon, six months on the roads.

Episcopal Convention At Fletcher

Members of the Church of the Holy Cross attending the Western North Carolina Diocese at Fletcher yesterday were the rector, the Rev. Chas. L. McGavern, Rev. C. P. Burnett, Dr. and Mrs. George Farrand Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Parmelee and George H. Holmes.

Fletcher, May 9.—An address by the Rt. Rev. R. E. Gribbin, of Asheville, bishop of the diocese of Western North Carolina, featured the opening day's session Tuesday of the two-day 17th annual convention of the diocese at Calvary Episcopal church here.

Bishop Gribbin began his address by referring to the attractive setting of the grounds and the restored Calvary church which was rebuilt after a fire on December 22, 1935, and was consecrated last August 21.

The bishop welcomed the new
Continued on Back Page