

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY

Vol. 12. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1939

CURB REPORTER

Merchant Prince: John Cowan, local merchant who started on a shoe string six years ago with a few shelves of groceries is celebrating his business birthday with special sales this week. Since its last birthday the business has added a dry goods and clothing store adjoining the grocery and market which previously had annexed the adjoining cafe. In the back of these buildings is growing a feed, fertilizer, seed and farm implement business . . . President

---Continued On Back Page---

Rotary-Insulation

James M. Baker will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale Log Cabin. The guest speaker will be Gerald Stone who will present motion pictures produced for the Johns-Manville Co.

Community Invited To Tea Saturday

It will be open house at the Tryon Country club on Saturday afternoon from 4:30 to 6:30. The entire community and visitors are invited to have tea at the club house. Mrs. Edgar Rowe will be hostess for the afternoon.

Golf Tournament Here Saturday

Local golfers will have the choice of three different events in the golf tournament to be held at the Tryon Country club on Saturday. There will be a tournament for women only and one for men only; also, a mixed two ball foursome. Players can choose the events they wish to enter and should notify Pro Larry Brooks as soon as possible. All events will be handicap affairs. No entry fee. Prizes for low net score in each event.

Hester Defeats Caldwell In Semi-Finals

Banker Julian B. Hester who with Dr. B. B. Bishop won the championship doubles trophy at the Tryon Country club tennis tournament last week has just completed his semi-finals singles match by defeating Coach M. B. Caldwell. He is now on the road to the singles championship if he can eliminate E. M. Armfield. The match between Hester and Caldwell yesterday was very close. Caldwell took the first set 6-2, but lost the second to Hester by 3-6 and in the final set was within one game of victory when the score stood 5-2 in his favor, but Hester overcame the lead to win 7-5.

Baseball Friday

Adams-Millis baseball team will entertain the Drayton team on Friday afternoon at Harmon Field at 4:15 o'clock. The locals hope to repeat their victory of last week by outhitting the visitors.