N. Y. A. Plans A State Exhibit

Examples of youth work and craft performed in North Carolina will be on display at the N. C. Youth Craft Exhibit and Conference to be held in Raleigh Memorial Auditorium, Friday and Saturday, May 19 and 20, according to C. F. Felts, NYA supervisor for Polk county.

The Conference, sponsored by the N. C. Council of Youth Serving Agencies, will combine an extensive exhibit of handicraft achievements by youth of North Carolina with an open forum discussion program dealing with immediate problems facing young people of today.

John A. Lang, State NYA Director, who is also president of the Council of Youth-Serving Agencies reported to Mr. Felts that present plans indicate this conference will be highly successful in its efforts to give expression to the works and thoughts of Young Tar Heels. A number of outstanding speakers from North Carolina and other states have accepted invitations to participate in the discussion forums which are to be conducted all day Saturday, May 20th.

The exhibit of youth crafts, arts and works will be opened to the public beginning at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon and will be on display all through the following day. Among organizations which will participate in the Conference are the 4-H clubs, the Future Farmers of America, the Civilian Conservation Corps, the National
