CURB REPORTER

The Fourth of July will be here in a few weeks and playground Commissioner Charlie Lynch wants to know if Tryonites would like another fireworks display and celebration including picnic, music and folk dancing. The Fourth comes on Tuesday this year and will not interfere with the merchants and clerks. It is a good time to invite people from all over the county. Don't be bashful. If you are interested speak up and say how much you will give toward buying fireworks and lemonade . . . Mrs. C. W. Kittrell, who has been teaching the First grade in Tryon school for the past 18 years will teach next year at the Lynn school in the same district. Mrs. Kittrell has had a remarkable record. She has taught about 800 Tryon students to read and write and she has the love and good wishes of all these students many of whom are now scattered all over the United States. Some of them have married and sent their children to Tryon school for Mrs. Kittrell to teach. A great service to the community. Many parents will be glad that she will still be in the school system. She leaves Tryon on Saturday for Zirconia where she will get her camp ready for summer guests. On July 3rd she will leave for Cape Cod, Mass., to coach young Bobby Hersey.

New News

News while it is still news, but moving news, too, is Manager Charles Nessmith's latest achievement for the Tryon Theatre. By special arrangement the Pathe Newsreel office in New York will send a film direct from their laboratory to Tryon every Thursday as soon as it is made. The films will reach Tryon on the Friday afternoon trains just a few hours later than a similar film is being shown in New York. After being viewed in Tryon Friday, Saturday and Sunday the film will be sent to Charlotte for showing there. Mr. Nessmith says you get results when you "Try-on", and he is proud of the fact that Tryon is only a few hours behind New York.

County Tour June 10

The regular yearly Garden club Pilgrimage for the county women will take place on Saturday, June 10th. Those wishing to go should notify Miss Garrison before June 7th, so there will be sure to be
